

The Book of Ephesians

The church that impacts the world

The background image shows the ruins of the Temple of Diana in Ephesus, Turkey. The temple's facade, featuring a row of six Corinthian columns, is the central focus. To the left, the stone tiers of an ancient amphitheater are visible. The foreground is filled with scattered stone blocks and debris. In the distance, a tall, isolated column stands against a blue sky with light clouds. The overall scene is a historical archaeological site.

Ephesians 4:1-16

You live out your calling as a minister of the Gospel

What is your calling?

- 1. General calling
- 2. Specific calling

A disciple of Jesus is committed to:

- Being with Jesus
- Becoming like Jesus
- Doing what Jesus did & still does today

The background image shows a vast archaeological site of ancient ruins. In the center, a prominent temple with a portico of columns stands on a raised platform. To the right, a tall, isolated column rises. The foreground is filled with the remains of other structures, including walls and foundations. The scene is set against a backdrop of green hills and a clear blue sky with light clouds. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and decay.

Your character is the foundation of your calling

Your calling involves works of service that build up the church

We are to be equipped for works of service (ministry)

A disciple of Jesus is committed to:

- Being with Jesus
- Becoming like Jesus
- Doing what Jesus did & still does today

Two images:

1. A well-built house

2. A healthy body

The outcome:
We are a display of the manifold wisdom of God

The outcome: Our callings mobilize the church to be on mission
